1. Details in respect of research work carried out during above mentioned period:

→ Home Page in insert a hero section in this include a tagline and one related line and after the side panel show our location of area where our hotel exist.

→ Menu Page insert our main intension of this website Using Card UI Effect show all items, related description, price of item display to the customer and which you want to order the food item and we are check that item can be available or not in our store after we are try to deliver the food item in minimum time.

→ Delivery Page is creating a generally use to deliver the item so need the customer location and we are want to deliver our product on a perfect location in this we are use for input through customer Full Name, Delivery address, Phone number and using the java script add the form validation so while all details fill correctly after the place order successfully you display the message after reset the form and not perfect detail add to display the error related to field.
